

Rebecca Applin

The Cambridge Harpist

The enchanting sound of the harp will bring an air of magic and occasion to your wedding day. The harp not only sounds beautiful but also looks visually stunning and can be played almost anywhere!

Whether you are looking for classical music for your wedding, traditional folk harp, or popular classics and jazz standards, Rebecca Applin, The Cambridge Harpist, will bring that extra sparkle to your special day with her beautiful harp music.

Rebecca is available to provide wedding music on the harp at venues in Cambridge, and throughout the Eastern region Cambridgeshire, Bedfordshire, Hertfordshire, Essex, Norfolk and Suffolk.

She is also available to play at all other kinds of occasion - dinner music, balls, birthday parties, christenings, anniversaries, garden parties. Rebecca is also a harp teacher in Cambridge, and is available to give tuition on either the lever or the pedal harp in her Cambridge studio.

Weddings and Functions

The beautiful sounds of the harp will bring a magical atmosphere to your wedding day, whether to announce the arrival of the bride and bring a sophisticated sense of occasion to the ceremony, or to provide a relaxed and enchanting musical backdrop to the drinks reception or wedding breakfast.

Rebecca is available to play at weddings and functions throughout the Eastern region - Cambridgeshire, Norfolk, Suffolk, Essex, Hertfordshire and Bedfordshire. She is happy to tailor her repertoire to suit any particular occasion, and is available to meet for a free consultation to discuss your requirements in person.

Quotations are available for playing at any combination of events, ranging from a wedding ceremony to a drinks reception, a garden party or throughout a dinner.
