

SAM & RAJWANT

(DIVERSE AND SKILLED PERFORMERS OF TRADITIONAL INDIAN MUSIC)

SITAR PLAYER SAM

One of the UK's leading sitarists, Sam has performed throughout the UK, India, Europe and America. As a student of the world's top sitarist (Ustad Shahid Parvez) Sam's approach to classical and folk music is progressive and thoughtful. Beautiful melodies and showmanship are present at all of his events. Sam has been interviewed and recorded for film and television, and has worked with a number of fusion, theatre and dance groups. He also accompanies as a tabla player for various artists.

VOCALIST RAJWANT

We are very pleased to welcome Rajwant to the UK from Punjab, India. She has completed an M.A. in vocal music before continuing to study with Pandit Om Parkash and Pashupati Nath Mishra. She has performed in India and the UK and has featured on a number of recordings. Rajwant is skilled in folk, classical, popular and religious singing styles and is blessed with a stunning voice. Whilst singing she also plays tanpura (a stringed drone instrument) or harmonium (a wind powered keyboard).

TABLA PLAYERS

Various very skilled and experienced tabla players perform with us, such as Udit Pankaj, Manjit Rasiya (Bombay dreams), and Tersem Singh (all India Radio and television). These artists are capable of tabla solos and accompaniment of many genres (both eastern and western) and demonstrate all the sweetness and complexities of such an exciting form of percussion.

ADDITIONAL ENTERTAINMENT

All members have toured and performed with experienced and talented dancers, dhol players and band musicians and are ready to collaborate for wide range of performances.
