

Steve Young

Guitar & Vocals

Steve has been playing guitar for 16 years. After being taken to see Pink Floyd at Wembley Stadium in 1988 he knew there was nothing else on earth he wanted to do.....

Moving to London in 1996 he experienced the 'highs' and 'lows' of life in the music industry. Joining bands signed to label giants such as Warner WEA and Sony/ATV he set off on a life of extensive touring, playing festivals (reading '96), recording singles, albums and making videos.

In 2000 with these experiences behind him he embarked on a career in session music. To date this has seen him perform on TV and Radio Roadshows with all time greats like Lionel Richie and pop favourites including Peter Andre, Delta Goodrem and Gareth Gates. In 2004 he played at Glastonbury with a new artist 'Halima'

Whilst doing this, to keep himself busy, he joined the UK's top tribute to Robbie Williams – Robbing Williams. RW play all over Europe and often find themselves performing in front of 10-20,000 people at festivals in the UK and EU.

Steve has always loved to sing and play acoustic guitar. Realising the enjoyment he gets from this, and the intimate experience an audience can have hearing great songs in a pure and honest way, he put together a repertoire of approx 90 songs.

Whatever the occasion, be it a formal dinner requiring ambient acoustic music in the background or a rowdy pub full of music lovers, the set can be tailored to suit everyone's needs.
