

Variations on a Theme

String Quartet

Variations on a Theme is a West Midlands based team of professional musicians who'll add a special touch to your event anywhere in the UK.

Offering musical entertainment with mainstream appeal combined with professional presentation, we specialise in stage shows for exhibitions, music videos and themed events. We also have vast experience playing at weddings and private parties.

With music ranging from medieval to James Bond themes, Bollywood to Hollywood and popular to classical, we will add a touch of magic to your party with services tailored to create just the right atmosphere.

Pick from our selection of dresses or saris, then add music from the extensive playing list, or send us your agenda and let us put together a package that fits.
