

Romii Belly Dancer and Tarot Reader

Belly Dancer Romii

Performing at private and corporate events throughout England and has also been called upon to dance at various venues in Australia, Japan and Egypt.

She is available to dance at a variety of events including weddings, corporate functions, annual dinners and private parties. She can add atmosphere and interest to a drinks reception by performing in a mix'n'mingle style amongst the guests or through the meal by dancing around tables or in a central, focal area of the venue.

An expressive and passionate dancer, Belly Dancer Romii gracefully blends both the traditional and cabaret styles of belly dance into a performance that will add sparkle and excitement to your event.

Tarot Reader Romii

In this unique form of entertainment, Romii uses the complete Tarot deck for one to one private readings in a separate area of the venue or works around the tables doing short 3 card readings to entertain guests through dinner. A combination of both readings styles is also available.

In addition to the believers who rush in for a reading at the start of the event, even the most sceptical of guests eventually give in to their curiosity and sit down at her table for a peek into what the future may have in store for them...
