

Children's Entertainment

Eileen

Eileen has been in the world of entertainment for the whole of her life. Her father and mother were professional singers, and her grandfather Will Cowling was a very well-known Music Hall Ventriloquist. It is from grandfather Will that Eileen has inherited her talent as a Children's Ventriloquist and Entertainer, appearing on TV at 7 years of age, and over the last 20 years building a unique reputation in her profession.

Joe

The star of Eileen's show, was used by Will over 100 years ago, but he is as spruce and lively as ever in Eileen's current presentation. Joe is joined by Nip the Dog, Daphne the Donkey (a French donkey !)
Little Ben, Dexter the Dragon, Clyde the Orang Utang and Mandie, Joe's girlfriend (who was also part of Will's act). There is even a cheeky squawking parrot called Dickie Bird who helps in the games along with Clyde.

A star-studded cast to bring joy, laughter, wonder and novelty to any group of children on any occasion.

Specialties

Eileen and Joe will bring life and magic to any occasion and make it very special and memorable. Live entertainment for children has its own distinct charm, and Eileen and Joe will create that unique atmosphere in which children delight.

There will be live interaction with the audience who will be tactically brought into the act, and Joe and his friends will genuinely come to life with their new group of friends.....and, of course, their parents !

Eileen has the highest standards of professionalism, being a member of Equity and being the holder of Home Office approval for work with children.

TV, CD's, DVD's and Play Stations have their place in the lives of children. Eileen and Joe add that live extra dimension to the real meaning of entertainment.

A full P.A. System is included in bookings and the mix of games, audience participation and music creates a fun, lively atmosphere.

For varying durations of 45 minutes, 1 hour or for up to 1 hour 30 minutes party organisers can relax, sit back and enjoy the occasion.

Customer Consultation

Eileen discusses in some detail the requirements of the party or event organiser, and produces a bespoke performance to suit the occasion. The act is most appropriate for children from 4 to 10 years, but evidence suggests that those of any age will be quickly absorbed into the atmosphere and will enjoy it.

Within the 1 hour 30 minutes show, 30 minutes of show followed by 30 minutes of games with prizes provided and finally another 30 minutes of show. Add a dash of food and drinks and you have the best party ever with a minimum of hassle and at a reasonable price. And of course you can take loads of photographs or even record the whole event to look back on in years to come.

Large numbers of children write very heart-warming letters of thanks to Eileen... and of course to Joe and his friends.

Birthday Parties

Eileen and Joe particularly enjoy the intimate atmosphere of family gatherings, and they share in the excitement surrounding them.

Each Birthday marks an important step forward in a child's life, and deserves to be remembered and cherished by the birthday boy or girl and their parents.

Eileen and Joe (particularly Joe !) will make your child a star of the show in a sensitive and caring way. His or her friends will talk of the show for weeks on end and remind you that you had a brilliant idea in making the booking.

Give us a ring and talk to Eileen and apologies in advance if Joe joins in the conversation! He is completely stage-struck.

PS If you are looking for something totally different for a grown ups audience then a very entertaining show is available

Corporate Children's Parties

Management in business, commerce and the public services regularly reward their staff for a job well done, and do so by arranging a large family party.

Why not introduce a period when the adults can mingle and talk of the things adults talk about while the children have a whale of a time with Eileen and Joe. Providing entertainment across the generations can be a challenge. Let us help you meet that challenge. No party is too big for Eileen and Joe, and Joe in particular loves to play to a full house!

A full self contained PA System and backing music comes with the booking so no problem in hearing all the show at the back of the room. Party games and dance music can also be part of the show.

Eileen and Joe are the added extra which will make your event one which is much appreciated by your staff.

Weddings

Wonderful occasions they may be, but there are periods of time during wedding festivities when the children become bored.

Perhaps you would like rid of them (in the nicest possible way !) for an hour or so. Why not invite Eileen and Joe to the event ? They will make the day as enjoyable for the children as it is for the adults, and they will bring to the occasion that important family feeling. And of course they will give mum and dad or grannie and granddad very welcome respite.

Joe and his friends love weddings.

Special Needs

Joy and happiness are entitlements of all children, and Eileen and Joe find wonderful satisfaction in bringing a magical experience to children with special needs.

Joe and his friends stimulate excitement and enthusiasm in such groups of children, quite often beyond the expectations of their parents and teachers.

Call us to discuss a possible booking. We will deal with your enquiry as a priority.

Schools

Eileen and Joe regularly take their show to schools, nurseries and play groups. Staff and parents unanimously applaud the event, at the same time as expressing gratitude that Joe and his friends are not members of their family or their class !

The show provided can be simple fun and enjoyment, or it can be themed to get over a message in a light-hearted yet meaningful way relating to key issues e.g. Healthy Eating or Anti-Bullying.

Joe in particular can be very forceful, and is highly skilled in obtaining and holding the attention of children. Mind you he's had loads of fun with teachers!
