

The Cockney Show

Whatever you book you'll find all the traditional favourites -

Lambeth Walk, Knocked 'em in the Old Kent Road, I'm Forever Blowing Bubbles, Maybe it's Because I'm a Londoner, Down at the Old Bull and Bush

Plus all the others you would expect to hear and a few surprises. The Pearly Queen sings songs from the popular London shows and John will entertain with 'The Day the Old Dun Cow Caught Fire!' and a version of 'Sister Susie' performed at a stunning pace. The familiar Chas & Dave favourites are not forgotten.

Dance, singalong, or just enjoy watching the band playing their instruments - every note is played and sung live- and admire their handsewn authentic pearly suits. Over 10,000 pearly buttons on John's suit, just how long did it take to make?!?

Union Jack handflags are given to the audience; the flag waving finale is a spectacular and a lasting memory.

High quality PA equipment is carried (Never too loud!) plus a spotlight and Union Jack bunting to add to the atmosphere.

The Cockney Duo can also perform in strolling mode with acoustic instruments for town centre, fair or meet and greet events.

1940s Show

This long running show is lead by band leader John Knowles. Lead Vocalist is ex Joe Loss singer Terri Morgan. All music is played live by the band, comprising of piano, drums, saxophone, guitar, lead vocals from our forces sweetheart and optional trumpet.

Jim the Spiv will also do speeches from Neville Chamberlain and Winston Churchill but the emphasis is on music, music, music and you can dance til you drop!

All the songs you would expect are included:

The White Cliffs of Dover
We'll Meet Again
Shine on Harvest Moon
As Time Goes By
Moonlight Serenade
In The Mood
Don't Sit Under The Apple Tree
Chatanooga Choo-choo
And Many More!

Bunting and waving flags are provided by the band. They travel worldwide!
