

John is a professional comedian after dinner entertainment speaker - golfing comedian auctioneer football dinners corporate, sporting, football & golf events, cabaret

If the name sounds familiar it should come as no surprise as John has been around for a "qualifying" number of years. "A wealth of experience here" as one critic observed. Having achieved a reputation from performing in all levels and facets of the comedy business and most importantly delivering the goods, whether it be golf days, corporate entertaining, sportsman's dinners, or after dinner speaking

Whether it be formal evening, or just to relax after dinner with the right type of act. the comedy needs to be selective for each audience and event. John has, over the years become used to being an important part of your function. With a skilful little tweak of the microphone, add a surprising twist to make things a little bit different from the norm.
