

David

Comedian

Probably one of the most versatile entertainers in the business! Fast-moving stand-up comedy, plus impressions and vocals, always adapting his act to suit the type of venue. David's act is a good mix, suitable for all age groups, including topical gags, straight out of the morning papers! With prior information, he can also 'personalise' some of the comedy, e.g. company product/services etc, plus any 'characters' in the audience (diplomatically of course!).

David can work either self-contained, or, should musicians be available, can also incorporate some guitar and excellent harmonica into the act, apart from the main comedy content. He is fully experienced, having appeared all over the country, on the club circuit, plus theatre, hotels, cruising, holiday centres, odd T.V. slots etc.

David also spent a number of years, working on the Thomson Hotel circuits in Tunisia, Greece and Sicily, as resident entertainer, also producing variety shows, using local musicians, as well as visiting cabaret acts. He also undertook responsibility as entertainments manager at several top hotels, with the added bonus of being able to speak French, Greek, and snatches of a few languages, so communication is no trouble with this good all-rounder! He recently undertook some cruising work around the Caribbean, and Mediterranean with his comedy act, plus hosting onboard quiz nights, having himself been a very successful contestant, on several top TV quiz shows, being outright champion on most of them!

David has worked for most of the top leisure companies, including Butlins, Warners, Haven, Thomson, Airtours etc, and is the ultimate professional – on and offstage. Also, he is the perfect choice as Comedian/Compere for any type of show, running a very smooth night, adapting to any situation!

David has a variety of different comedy acts and routines, adapting the comedy content to suit all types of audience including all male.
