Juggling Fire Show

“Bringing together the skills some of the world’s finest fire performers, Juggling Fire is a funky, high energy group fire show. We guarantee to amaze your guests and have them cheering for more.”

This show is a modular group performance which can be from 2-7 fire performers. It involves performing with a variety of fire and glow props. The show is choreographed to music and builds to a grand finale with all the performers on stage. Depending on the event we may talk to the crowd at the beginning middle and end of our show. The show can be from 10-30 minutes long depending on client requirements it is made up of modular sections of group and solo routines. Juggling Fire comes with the offer of an optional pyro-technic finale. The show can be performed inside or outside and is best seen on a stage. Duration 10-30 minutes. Can be performed inside or outside with or without a stage.

Pyromania Fire Show

“Pyromania is a solo fire show, combining fire spinning, amazing skills and some of the best high energy staff juggling in the world. Tim has spent five years creating, developing and polishing this performance, which showcases his incredible talent and love for fire manipulation. Performed to a funky soundtrack the show is both dramatic and exhilarating. Action-packed routines are interspersed with live audience interaction culminating in a grand finale.”

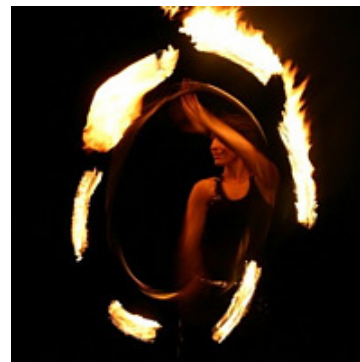

Pyromania involves high speed spinning, throwing and juggling of flaming staffs at great heights. It is performed to music and usually involves Tim talking and interacting with the audience. This show requires more space than most fire performance and although it can be performed indoors it is most often performed outside. Pyromania comes with the offer of an optional pyrotechnic finale. Duration 10-30 minutes. Can be performed inside or outside with or without a stage

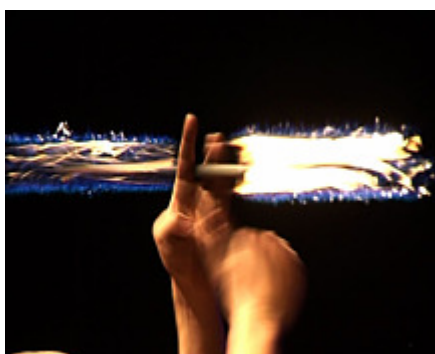

Solo Fire Shows

“Allow one of Juggling Fire’s highly skilled performers to entertain you with death-defying feats of fiery performance. From street theatre to stage shows we have the skills to amaze your guests.”

We have a variety of performers who have their own solo fire shows available. The shows consist of various fire props being used including poi, staff, juggling torches and hula-hoop. Each individual show will have different technical aspects which we will be happy to discuss with you. Duration; variable depending on requirements. Can be performed inside or outside with or without a stage.

Bespoke Fire Shows

“Work with us to create a special one-off fire and circus extravaganza. Juggling Fire can offer the skills and expertise of costumiers, choreographers, circus performers and more to deliver a totally new and original show for your event.”

If you require something completely new for your event we can create a totally bespoke show for you. If you have challenging or complicated needs we will work hard to find a positive outcome. We work in collaboration with many different circus acts, costumiers, choreographers and performers. Duration; variable depending on requirements. Can be performed inside or outside with or without a stage.

Ambient Fire Performance

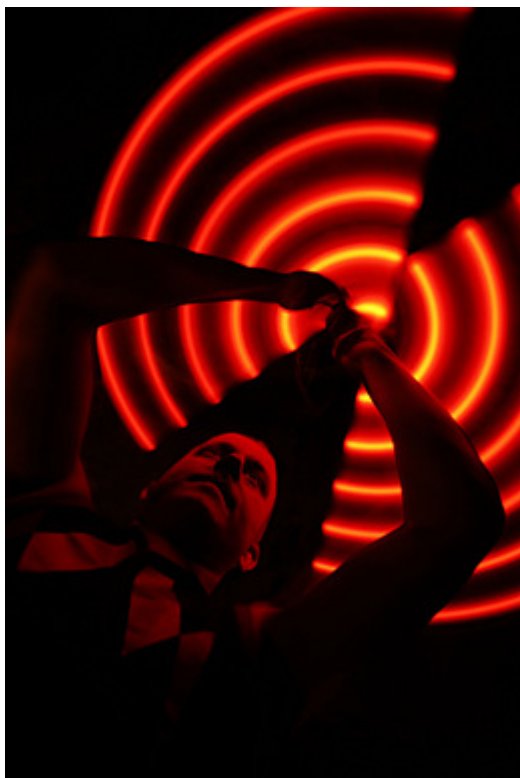

“Allow Juggling Fire’s performers to set the ambience. Subtly interacting with your guests to set the tone of an exciting event. Strategically position us to allow maximum effect, adding that extra spark to your event.”

Ambient fire performance is designed to add a background sparkle to an event. Our performers will position themselves in suitable areas to perform around your event. We use various props and we can perform with or without music. We deliberately keep our performance small and subtle to provide an entertaining ambience rather than a wow factor. Often we find this a good opportunity to pose for clients photographers for those essential publicity shots.

Duration up to 40 minutes per slot. Can be performed inside or outside with or without a stage.

Meet and Greet Fire performance

“Juggling Fire’s talented performers welcome your guests creating an amazing first impression. As your guests arrive by car or enter the venue we will greet them with some welcoming words and fiery performance. Ensuring they arrive at the event with a warm glow in anticipation of an exciting time ahead.”

Meet and greet fire performance involves on or more of our performers welcoming your guests to an event. This could be as they drive past on arrival or as they make their way into the venue. We greet your guests with some welcoming words and some fire performance. Duration up to 40 minutes per slot. Usually performed outside the entrance to a venue.
