

Daniel

Piano

Vocalist

Daniel is a true eclectic. As well as having a classical background and a profound love for Chopin, Daniel entertains with many a witty Cole Porter rendition, a feast of familiar Beatles tunes, high energy Freddy Mercury stomps and the odd Nina Simone number.

Born in London, but schooled in France and Switzerland, Daniel also loves to sing in French and Italian, and so he cites Jacques Brel, Charles Aznavour, Edith Piaf, Andrea Bocelli as some of his most enduring vocal and song writing influences.

At ease with a role as pure background or on fire when it comes to swinging the evening to an all-singing, all-dancing sensation, Daniel is well suited to many a tasteful environment, sophisticated, sassy or sensual.

Daniel started life as a pianist - composer in a contemporary classical way (influenced by Rachmaninov, Chopin and Herbie Hancock), then into his twenties he started to play more popular classics and jazz, and now in his 30s, he plays pretty much anything!

Wedding Repertoire

Daniel's repertoire includes instrumental, classical and jazz music for warm background atmospheres as well as more upbeat piano/vocal, sing-along style music.

Under the umbrella of instrumental, Daniel enjoys playing Mozart and Chopin as well as smooth hits from the musicals and jazz & latin tunes by Brubeck, Jobim, Gershwin, Cole Porter and Duke Ellington.

Daniel performs either solo, with piano and backing tracks or with a variety of musicians to suit the mood.

Examples of piano or keyboard music at a wedding...

Wedding Reception

Sophisticated, easy listening music as your first guests arrive at the reception.

Civil / Christian Ceremonies

Classical Music While Your Guests Arrive, for a warm and relaxed atmosphere.

Jewish Ceremonies

Ideal processional music could include Dodi Li, Erev Shel Shoshanim or Eishet Chayil

Arrival of the Bride

Make a choice for me to play her favourite piece of music, or a bright classical number. This could be anything from Mozart to Queen!

Register Signing and Photographs

More background music, discrete and unobtrusive.

Exit in Style

Upbeat Swing or Foxtrot perhaps, while the happy couple leave and guests follow for photographs.

Here are some of Daniel's Testimonials

I thoroughly enjoyed every evening I spent in your piano lounge Daniel. You really made our holiday. I had not yet met a pianist with your ability to playing pieces and songs so new and old.

Jeff Smallcombe, Passenger on board Ocean Majesty cruise.

Daniel, you created the most romantic and idyllic musical setting for our wedding. Thank you so much. I would not hesitate to recommend you as pianist, entertainer or gentleman for any such splendid affair. We will always be grateful for you for playing our favourite tunes.

Deepun Haria, celebrating his marriage to Emilie in Henley

We don't know what we would have done without you during this trip. None of the other entertainment on board was our cup of tea, and you really made us feel special by playing 'our' song when you saw us in your piano bar. Thanks again and do come and visit us in Devon when you are touring!

Michelle Chaso, passenger on board cruise.

"Daniel made our private function for my father's birthday very warm and intimate by creating a singalong session of all the great old songs my father's generation loved very much. He took care to learn alot of songs that I requested in advance. There was even an impromptu duet when one of our guests played the violin to Daniel's piano playing. It was a really lovely afternoon. Thank you Daniel!"

Pamela Rose, private function client.
