

Steve Giles and Chris Johnson. they have extensive performing experience and spent many years perfecting their craft through a variety of projects including a disco harmony quartet, a pop/soul choir and a variety of acoustic and fully live outfits.

Everything before now has certainly contributed to a polished act from two incredible male vocalist, based around soul, motown, RnB, funk, pop and a peppering of swing for those more prestigious occasions.

Together with their previous ventures they have performed leads in the bright lights of London's West End at theatres such as The London Palladium and the Strand theatre. They have supported acts at the Southampton Mayflower theatre, and amongst others, supported the likes of 80's icon Yaz, Xfactor finalists 4Tune, and the legend that is Peter Andre.

As Richmond, the boys recently won a singing contest to win the opportunity to support Britain's premiere soul singer 'Lemar', close to their hometown in Southampton.

They have also had the privilege of supporting 70's Disco outfit 'Heatwave', and are set to support numerous other acts towards the end of 2007; Alexander O'Neil, The Drifters, Boney M and The X Factor tour, to name but a few.

In between 'mixing it up' with the Stars, Richmond regularly perform at bars, clubs and music venues to party-goers who always come away buzzing. However their stylish but approachable demeanour and slick mix of music will perfectly compliment your corporate event, dinner or wedding.

Either way, it is clear to see that Richmond are at the forefront of their genre and are constantly rejuvenating their audiences with their dynamic and original style.
