

The Silhouette Artist

The silhouette cutters of The Silhouette Artist, with their unique demonstration of hand and eye co-ordination, will help to make your event an unforgettable one! By turns flattering or humorous, their paper "cameos" are cut straight out in a matter of seconds, with nothing more than scissors! There's no need to draw them out first! The resulting likenesses are mounted into ovals and handed out as a souvenir of your event. The Silhouette Artist, Charles Burns is widely regarded as the finest silhouette cutter working in the country today. A constant experimenter, Charles is always seeking new forms, and new markets for the Art of Silhouette!

Charles was featured in the BBC2 series "Tales of Tools" (in the episode about scissors!), and today has a busy schedule bringing his art to an extraordinary variety of events all over the UK (and often abroad). To watch him in action is an object lesson in hand-eye coordination!
