

Spooof Security and Comedy Waiters

Have your guests become the victim of our unique security team, Steve Jones and Norman Bush, who will do everything from body plant, to cause our oh so realistic metal detectors to go off. Its all good fun and you get to choose the victims.

Do you want something different for your party/event?
Well this is it...

Comedy Waiters & Security Guards

What we do! On a normal night! The first thing your guests will see as they arrive is "The Security Guards" - "Steve Jones and Norman Bush". With a strict policy of "No Weapons" and "Strictly No Guns" your guests will have to pass through our metal detector. With searches and body planting, your night is guaranteed to start with a laugh and a great way to put a spanner in the works.

Much More than guaranteed laughs!

You can have the Security Guards and the Waiters, or one or the other, the choice is yours.

We now offer even more, with Tony and Mike the Lounge singers, the non musical, musical duo... that will get your guest in the mood for a party!

We pride ourselves on the fact that this is purely light entertainment and that none of your guests will be upset. We know when to stop!

Comedy Waiters

Comedy Waiters for Parties, Events, Weddings, Corporate Events, in fact any event where there's people.

What happens? Imagine a hidden camera show, but without the cameras. Well that's what's going on when you book the Comedy Waiters.

When the waiters appear, the whispers in the room start and heads start to turn, "Are these guys for real?".

What we don't do!

We don't throw food.

We don't take food away from anyone.

We don't spill or drop food on anyone or thing.

We don't interfere with food in anyway.

We don't swear or be offensive.

We don't stop service.

What we do!

We serve food as if we are real waiters, but with a little attitude (as if we don't want to be there).

We don't know much about what we are serving, apart from it could be hot!

Fairly unhelpful if questions are asked, such as "How did you break your arm?".

All the real staff are prepped beforehand to say that we are agency staff. This adds a bit more realism to the performance. Your audience will be amazed as their table is being waited on by an unusual looking waiter.

When tables are cleared the faces of your guests will be shocked at the way the plates are stacked up high and the guests are asked to help with the clearing up by passing round the plates to the waiter. When the used cutlery goes into the pockets of the Comedy Waiters the laughs really start to get louder, The comedy waiters are a great way to throw a spanner in the works... Just a few word from some of our clients!

The Comedy Waiters work very well with the Comedy Security Guards as a package

Our security guards will continue with the service as they show our guests to their seats with a seven million candle powered lamp.

Loud Ozzie Waiters

Dirty, unhygienic and loud, the waiters blend in with the real serving staff, and help (or may be not) with the serving...they culminate in 'inconspicuous' cleaning of tables, glass collecting and vacuuming (you'll never know they're there!) a very visual and funny act...

If you want a Mix and Mingle / Meet and Greet to start your evening with a spot of comedy that people will remember, then book us!
