

The barn dance band

Grab your Stetson, polish those rhinestones, and come on down for just the best party ever. The Barn Dance Band (often described by clients as fantastic!) offers a unique combination of rocky traditional and country style music to get your feet tapping.

Our caller and all round dance expert can guide you through Square Dances, Line Dances, Party Dances and lots more. Even reluctant dancers will find it hard to resist joining in and everyone can be part of the fun; there is something for all ages and abilities.

Alternatively we can perform a concert set which draws on New Country and Country Rock to give a very accessible concert experience and we can intersperse the songs with 'yee haw' country instrumentals to liven up the atmosphere. Our singer (Martyna) has been working with such influential talents as Boo Hewerdine, David Knopfler, Cara Dillon and Sam Lakeman.

The barn dance band as well as playing a range of classic country songs for concert or party gigs. We have over two decades of experience in providing music for a wide range of corporate and private functions and will ensure that your client's special event runs smoothly and that everyone has a good time. You can read some comments from satisfied customers on our website as well as hear sound clips and see photographs of the band in action.

While the dancing is not limited to traditional Hoedown material, we do a mix of common American dances along with Line Dance if required. We cover all the main bases of square and traditional American Dances such as the Virginia Reel and can add in Line Dances and mix in country songs to help maintain the ambience. We can also perform a selection of Country songs throughout the evening as part of a concert set. We find that our approach to calling, and the mix of dances is ideal for audiences who may be not be familiar with Hoedown or Line Dancing, or indeed any kind of dancing at all. We have been successfully playing at American themed events for a number of years and have often had return bookings so I guess we must be doing something right.

We are a five piece dance band including a caller, fiddle, guitar, bass guitar and drums. The band is fully self-contained, we provide all the equipment that we need to perform including PA and lights. All your client needs to provide is a space for us to play and at least two safe 13 amp power sockets. The band is also fully insured and the equipment has regular PAT safety checks.
